

BIG AIR LINER IS REPORTED SAFE

Prices Continue To Crash On New York Stock Market

TOTAL SALES AGAIN BREAK DAY RECORD

Indications Are That More Than 15,000,000 Share Mark Will Be Shattered

FIRM IS SUSPENDED

Estimated That 50 Billion Dollars Have Been Lost Since Start of Decline

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The greatest break in the history of the New York stock exchange continued to slash away billions of dollars in values today in the most enormous trading day in history. Prices seemed to know no end.

Sales on the New York stock exchange broke all records today with sales up to 2:10 p. m., aggregating 13,813,000 shares, compared with the previous record of 12,884,650 shares traded last Thursday. At the same rate of activity of trading in the first four hours, total sales promised to eclipse the 15,000,000 mark.

Positive assurances from bankers and economists that the bottom had been reached yesterday brought only a temporary respite. Then the market roared downward at wide drops.

Shortly after 1 p. m. prices were down 1 to 50 points on both the big board and the curb exchange, with new lows for the year or longer established in many shares. The market value loss was tremendous, totaling upwards of $50,000,000, since this terrific downward movement started a few days ago.

One curb brokerage house failed, the first to fail since the record downswing of the market—and his led to unsettling of a market which had opened on the basis of a $2,000,000 share day, and with some symptoms of a recovery.

Selling in the first half hour was the heaviest ever seen on the exchange. Sales in that period totaled 3,259,800 shares, or at the rate of 32,598,000 for a full session.

Blocks ranging from 5000 to 50,000 shares came out. Specialists had so much difficulty arriving at prices that some of these huge sales were deferred for 30 minutes.

The trading public became alarmed after yesterday's terrific bear onslaught that wiped out many a millionaire. Bankers conferred into the night and relief was promised today.

Nothing could stem the recession that was caused by liquidation of poorly margined accounts at the opening, and no effort was made to do it.

SENATOR DIES

SEN. BURTON OF OHIO IS DEAD IN WASHINGTON

Solomon Passes After Illness Lasting Over Period of Several Months

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio died last night after an illness of several months.

Death came shortly before 10 o'clock. It followed a sinking spell which swept him into unconsciousness from which he did not recover.

A rising temperature and faltering pulse already had alarmed attendants at his bedside, and they hastily summoned his physician, Dr. Robert Baker. Before the doctor could reach the residence, however, those gathered in the sick room found that he had died.

Word of his death greeted official Washington from President Hoover down. From time to time the President had called on the 77-year-old legislator to keep in close personal touch with his condition.

Ever since Mr. Burton suffered a relapse in his long standing illness last week, messages of friendship had been reaching his home from Ohio and elsewhere. One today was from Prime Minister MacDonald, of Great Britain, through the British Embassy.

Arrangements were made today for a public funeral service for Senator Burton in the Senate chamber on Wednesday.

McGee was tried without a jury before Judge Charles Fricke, who recently presided at the trial of Alexander Pantages, convicted of assaulting Eunice Pringle, young dancer.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Tony Cornero, alleged rum runner, was arraigned in the federal court today on a three-year-old indictment charging him with illegally importing huge quantities of liquor into this country.

TRANSAMERICA STOCK FALLS OFF 30 POINTS OVER NIGHT

ASSERTS LOCAL JR. COLLEGE IS BEST IN STATE

University of Southern California Professor in Anaheim Address

ANAHEIM, Oct. 29.—Declaring that one good junior college is better than two junior colleges for Orange county and that he believes Santa Ana to have the best junior college in the state, Dr. S. J. Weersing, of the University of Southern California, addressed 150 men at the meeting of the Men's Forum club in the White Temple Methodist church here last night.

Dr. Weersing, who is considered an authority on the junior college question, spoke on "The Place and Function of the Junior College." The speaker was introduced by the president of the club, Paul Damaree.

The expense per pupil in the small college as compared to the expense per pupil in the larger college was explained by the speaker who said that in a small college of the state the expense was $1300 per pupil when it should be but $450.

The junior college has a large place in the educational program of the state, said Dr. Weersing. Vocational training can be stressed to a better advantage than in the junior college than in the academic colleges, he declared.

The newly appointed pastor of the church, the Rev. R. W. Lee, made his initial appearance at the club. He was introduced to the club and made a brief talk. An informal discussion of the junior college question followed the meeting.

W. 17th Street To Be Widened For Business

Petition Filed With City Council Outlines Big Improvement Plan

ZONING OF West Seventeenth street to business between Main and Flower streets, widening of the thoroughfare to 80 feet between the two points and building of a 56-foot paved highway is the big program of property owners on that street, it was revealed by a petition filed last night asking the city council for the improvements.

The petition was signed by owners of 73 per cent of the property fronting on the street. The petitioners very definitely stated that the improvement program is contemplated only in event the council grants the request for rezoning of the territory. The petition requests asphaltic pavement between Main and Broadway and Portland cement between Broadway and Flower.

"The petitioners seem to know what they want and where they are going, and it is one of the strongest petitions ever presented to this body," said Councilman Homer Chaney, in indicating that he was favorable to granting of the request of owners. Other councilmen indicated a favorable attitude.

Taking a course a little unusual in such a proceeding, the council ordered the property posted for a public hearing at the council chambers at 7:30 p. m. next Monday, instead of referring it to the planning commission.

It was asserted that other property owners on the street not signing the petition had announced that they would offer no objection to the program.

"There are no projects for immediate building of business structures on Seventeenth street, but the thoroughfare is destined to become an important business section in the future and we want to prepare for that possibility," said a property owner today.

FORMER MAYOR OF ORANGE IS CALLED TODAY

Dr. D. F. Royer, Pioneer Physician in County Dies In Long Beach

One of Orange county's pioneer physicians and public spirited citizens had passed away today with the death of Dr. D. F. Royer, of Orange, who died unexpectedly yesterday in Long Beach, where he was visiting in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mark Kohler. Death came as a result of heart trouble. He was 79 years old.

Dr. Royer came to Orange in 1896 and had practiced medicine in that city since that time, but he was known to residents there also as an able and tireless civic worker, having been mayor of the city for one term and a member of the city council for six years.

Funeral services will be held in the First Christian church in Orange at 2:30 p. m., Thursday. Interment will be in Fairhaven cemetery, where the Orange Masonic order, of which he was a member, will be in charge. The body is in the J. E. Seale Funeral parlors, in Fullerton.

Dr. Royer came to California from Alpena, S. D., where he had been city treasurer and a member of the school board. For two terms he was a member of the Dakota legislature before the state was divided, and was recognized as a leader on the floor. He was born in Waynesboro, Pa. His medical education was received in the Jefferson Medical school, in Philadelphia.

The pioneer physician is survived by three daughters, four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. The daughters, all of whom are well known in Orange, are Mrs. Warren Meeks, of Lynwood; Mrs. Mark Kohler, of Long Beach, and Mrs. C. L. Wilson Jr., of Orange.

Dr. Royer was a Knights Templar Mason and a Shriner, a member of the Odd Fellows and an Elk. He was a member of the Orange County Medical society, the American Medical association, the Southern California Medical association and the Pacific Coast Railway Surgeons' association. He served as surgeon for the Southern Pacific, Santa Fe and Pacific Electric railways. During the World war he was a member of the exemption board in Orange, which examined over 6000 men.

Trading Halts Temporarily This Morning

Heavy Support of Bank of Italy Interests Fails To Stop Stampede

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Trading in Transamerica corporation, temporarily suspended on the San Francisco stock exchange at the opening this morning, was resumed shortly before 10 a. m.

The opening quotation was 30 1/8, an overnight loss of 32 1/8 points. Montgomery street was in a turmoil of excitement when it became apparent that the heavy support of Bank of Italy interests, which so far during the market crisis had maintained the price within a range of one or two points of 62 1/2, had been nullified by the overnight landslide of individual selling orders.

Upon the basis of the opening prices in San Francisco, Transamerica, held by 150,000 stockholders, had lost $751,480,000 in market value since the last quotation yesterday.

The stock was selling at $18 a share less than the book value of $50.

A reassuring statement by A. P. Giannini, issued during the interim while sales were under suspension here in an effort to fix the opening price, did not prevent an opening quotation of $13 less than the first price today on the Los Angeles exchange, which was $45.

Effective support of the Bank of Italy interests to Transamerica and to Intercoast Trading company, an investment trust, prior to the collapse today is evidenced by the even trend of prices yesterday regarding performance of other less fortunate issues in the general maelstrom.

Yesterday's range:

	High	Low	Close
Transamerica	62 7/8	62 3/8	62 1/2
Intercoast	23 3/8	23	23 3/8

Ten minutes after trading had been resumed the price moved up to 23. In another 20 minutes it had forged forward to 47, with 10,000 shares selling at this price.

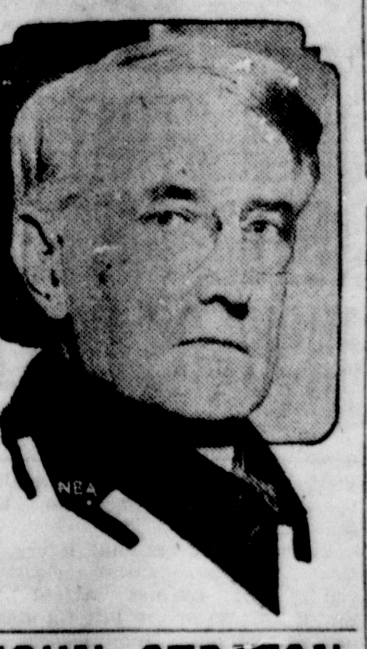

At 10:15 a. m. it was back to 32 1/2.

Trading was delayed for almost an hour after the market opened to permit specialists to straighten out the avalanche of buy and sell orders and fix an opening price.

JOHN STRATON, NOTED PASTOR, ANSWERS CALL

Famous Fundamentalist Dies at Clifton Springs, N. Y., This Morning

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Dr. John Roach Straton, noted fundamentalist minister, died today at Clifton Springs, N. Y. Heart disease caused the death. Straton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church here, had been ill for some time. His wife was at the bedside.

The rise of Straton in the ministry was sensational and rapid. Born in Evansville, Ind., in 1875, he attended Mercer university and later took a professorship at Baylor university.

He accepted a call to a Chicago pulpit and from there came to the Calvary Baptist church, regarded by clergymen as the most influential fundamentalist pulpit in the denomination. His life and work was a constant challenge to the so-called modernists.

Straton rallied to the support of William Jennings Bryan in the Scopes case at Dayton, Tenn., was an incessant worker for stern censorship of the theater and against the motion picture industry.

Los Angeles, Oct. 29.—(UP)—Independent operators in the Santa Fe Springs oil fields moved today to put an end to proposed cut in crude oil prices by an agreement to slow the production schedule from 270,000 to 150,000 barrels a day.

It was said that all of the independent operators with the exception of the Wilshire Oil company were willing to sign the production agreement, effective November 1.

A meeting of the Signal Hill operators will be held in Long Beach tomorrow in an effort to reach a similar agreement, according to Judge E. D. Reiter, head of the independents.

Officials of Company Fail To Give Up Hope That Five Occupants Safe

BULLETIN

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—The Western Air Express announced here that its passenger liner 113, missing since early yesterday, landed in Albuquerque late today.

The flash received at the local headquarters said that the two passengers and three members of the crew were safe.

The word to the Western Air Express merely was read: "Jimmy Doles landed here safely with remainder of his crew and passengers and under power of his own plane."

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The southwest's second great air hunt within three months started at dawn today when planes took the air to search for a Western Air Express passenger liner feared lost near the rugged Arizona-New Mexico state line.

Two passengers and a crew of three were aboard the plane when it took off from Kingman, Ariz., at 7:24 a. m. yesterday after refueling on its flight from Los Angeles to Albuquerque.

A snowstorm along the route might have sent the pilot off his course, flyers said.

George Rice, who found the wreckage of the T. A. T. plane which crashed three months ago on Mount Taylor with a loss of eight lives, was at the controls of the searching plane which took off at 3 a. m. from Albuquerque. Other ships left Los Angeles and Colorado Springs about the same hour.

Jack Fry, president of the Standard express, a subsidiary of Western express, was at the controls of the plane which left for Los Angeles. He is well acquainted with the route.

In the plane from Colorado Springs were Capt. C. W. France, district manager of the Western Air express, and Phil Philbin, district manager of the Mid-continent Air express, a subsidiary.

The two passengers aboard the missing liner were:

Dr. A. W. Ward, San Francisco, W. E. Merz, Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

The crew:

Chief Pilot James A. Doles, 28, Los Angeles.

Co-Pilot Allan A. Barrie, 26, Burbank, Calif.

Steward R. L. Briten, 25, Los Angeles.

BOARD WILL HEAR JUNIOR COLLEGE PROTESTS DEC. 17

The board of supervisors today set 2 p. m., December 17, as the time for hearing protests on formation of the proposed junior college district embracing the Fullerton, Brea-Olinda and Anaheim high school districts. The date was set after County Superintendent of Schools R. P. Mitchell had filed a petition with the board in which creation of the district is requested by the Fullerton high school trustees.

That citizens in the Anaheim district may seek to be excluded from the district was indicated today when William Maurhan, of Katella, sought information as to the procedure necessary to bring the matter to a vote of the people. It was stated that a petition, signed by 20 per cent of the qualified voters, must be filed with the board by December 17 in order to bring about an election.

HUMAN HEART, SENT IN MAIL, MAY SOLVE MURDER AT H. B.

A new clue to the mysterious murder of an unidentified man, whose body was found, partially mutilated, in a chicken coop near Huntington Beach on October 6, developed last night, when the Sacramento police announced they were on the trail of a person who sent a human heart through the mails.

The body, found lying in a clump of bushes in the isolated chicken yard, was without a heart, and officers were of the opinion that after death, the heart had been cut out during an operation which they claimed took place after death.

The heart was contained in a brown stone jug which was not much larger than the heart itself, according to information obtained today by Herman Zabel from Captain Ray Cato, of the homicide detail of the Los Angeles police department, who has been co-operating with Orange county officers on the murder case.

Details concerning the Sacramento angle have not been made clear to officers here, in that they do not know yet where the heart was sent or from where, and Cato is today attempting to get more information from Sacramento.

Lt. R. Rexwelch, chemist of the Los Angeles police department, was here yesterday working on the murder case along with Sheriff Sam Jernigan again went to the place where the man's body was found. Rexwelch took back to Los Angeles with him, some of the dirt from the spot where the body was found, for analysis.

Seek Jury To Try Shuler On Charges Brought By Cryer

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The task of securing a jury to try the Rev. R. P. Shuler, Methodist minister, on charges of criminal libel brought against him by Former Mayor George Cryer occupied today's session in Municipal Judge Pope's court.

Both city and defense attorneys subjected prospective jurors to close interrogation.

A highlight of the proceedings came late yesterday when the Rev. E. Lee Howard, Congregational minister and former president of Fargo college, Fargo, North Dakota, gave the opinion that the Rev. Mr. Shuler is "a boy who has never grown up and who never will grow up."

The Rev. Mr. Howard had been called as a juror and probably will be challenged by the defense. He said he had no prejudice against ministers mixing in politics but believed that everyone should be sure of his facts before attacking a public official.

Modern Mothers Help Create New Slogan

Millions More Each Year Turn To Famous External Method of Treating Colds

Each year more and more mothers turn to Vicks VapoRub, the modern external treatment for colds, because it is just rubbed on and cannot upset children's stomachs, as "dosing" is so apt to do.

Originally designed and first used largely for children's colds, this better external method gradually spread as one enthusiastic mother told another. Years of actual use also proved it equally effective for the colds of grown-ups. Today the whole trend of medical practice is away from needless "dosing," and Vicks—a household word in America—is used in more than 60 countries abroad.

The ever-growing demand for Vicks is shown in its familiar slogan, expressing the number of jars used yearly. First announced when Vicks reached "17 Million Jars Yearly"—later raised to "21 Million"—the figures are again being changed, as there are now "Over 26 Million Jars Used Yearly."—Adv.

OIL OPERATOR TAKES LEASES AT FIVE POINTS

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—T. G. Harriman, 4032 Ocean avenue, Long Beach, is taking leases in the Five Point district northeast of the city limits of Huntington Beach that provide for commencement of drilling operations by February 1.

Harriman owns some acreage in that section. He has been active in the oil business in this field and at Signal Hill. It is stated by those who have given leases to Harriman that he plans to drill a test for oil at Five Points and if the test fails he will put on a subdivision campaign, selling his tract of 100 acres out in lots.

Five Points had an oil excitement about two years ago when E. J. Miley took over a drilling well there and tried to bring it in but the effort was unsuccessful. Major companies took many leases at Five Points, paying fancy prices for acreage.

No "Instruments of the Devil" Now! AN ANCIENT PREJUDICE HAS BEEN REMOVED

With the introduction of machinery man-power feared it was to be supplanted. By the force of AMERICAN INTELLIGENCE this ancient prejudice disappeared. Our modern "machine age" brings happiness and prosperity.

"toasting did it"—

Gone is that ancient prejudice against cigarettes—Progress has been made. We removed the prejudice against cigarettes when we removed harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from the tobaccos.

YEARS ago, when cigarettes were made without the aid of modern science, there originated that ancient prejudice against all cigarettes. That criticism is no longer justified. LUCKY STRIKE, the finest cigarette you ever smoked, made of the choicest tobacco, properly aged and skillfully blended—"It's Toasted."

"TOASTING," the most modern step in cigarette manufacture, removes from LUCKY STRIKE harmful irritants which are present in cigarettes manufactured in the old-fashioned way.

Everyone knows that heat purifies, and so "TOASTING"—LUCKY STRIKE'S extra secret process—removes harmful corrosive ACRIDS (pungent irritants) from LUCKIES which in the old-fashioned manufacture of cigarettes cause throat irritation and coughing. Thus "TOASTING" has destroyed that ancient prejudice against cigarette smoking by men and by women.

"It's Toasted"—the phrase that describes the extra "toasting" process applied in the manufacture of Lucky Strike Cigarettes. The finest tobaccos—the Cream of the Crop—are scientifically subjected to penetrating heat at minimum, 260°—maximum, 300°, Fahrenheit. The exact, expert regulation of such high temperatures removes impurities. More than a slogan, "It's Toasted" is recognized by millions as the most modern step in cigarette manufacture.

CONGRATULATE DR. WARMER UPON BIRTHDAY

Over 125 members of the Council of Religious Education attended the regular meeting in the First Methodist church last night. A chicken dinner was served in the banquet hall of the new social-educational unit and the birthday anniversary of Dr. George A. Warmer, pastor, was celebrated.

Following the presentation of an elaborately decorated cake, Mrs. E. L. Matthews read a birthday greeting in verse written by Mrs. R. H. McArthur.

Program features included piano solos by Miss Eva Ramsey, an enrollment talk by Henry W. Guthrie and an address by the Rev. H. Donald Clary on the subject, "Personal Standards for Church School Workers."

A. H. Theal, general superintendent of the council, presided at the business session.

Mrs. R. H. McArthur, chairman; Mrs. Daniel Wellington, Mrs. Earl Matthews, Mrs. D. J. Palmer, Miss Jean Ramsey, Miss Inez Hickman, R. H. McArthur and Fred Finut comprised the dinner committee.

REHEARSALS UNDER WAY FOR SANTA ANA, ORANGE COUNTY GRAND OPERA PRESENTATION

Announcement was made this morning that regular rehearsals for a spectacular presentation here of Verdi's famous grand opera, "La Traviata," by the Orange County Grand Opera company, now are well under way in Los Angeles. The event is scheduled for Tuesday night, November 26, in the Fox-Spurgeon theater.

This momentous event will be a definite step forward in musical and cultural progress in Santa Ana and Orange county. Since this ambitious undertaking marks the premiere performance of professional grand opera in this section, it is eagerly anticipated by music lovers from various communities all over Southern California.

Coming but two days prior to the Thanksgiving holidays, the event will add much to holiday festivities. A scale of prices ranging from $1 to $2.50 has been agreed upon for tickets for "La Traviata." This will come as a pleasant surprise to many for whom prices for grand opera in Los Angeles heretofore have made attendance prohibitive.

It is anticipated that the entire house will be sold within a week from the time tickets go on sale, since requests already are coming in and many reservations already have been made.

Tickets will go on sale Monday, November 11. As the capacity of the house is limited, it will be well for the opera-loving public to make reservations at once by calling the Santa Ana Book store.

Music lovers of Orange county now will be able to attend a grand opera performance of unquestioned merit right at home at lower prices than previously have been considered possible.

Mme. Maria Caselotti, noted opera star, who recently returned from a supremely successful engagement with the New England Grand Opera company, will be heard in the title role of "Violetta" on this occasion.

Mme. Caselotti has won countless triumphs in leading eastern cities and Havana, Cuba, as well as in the Royal opera house in Rome, and is acclaimed by prominent music critics both in Europe and America as one of the best-loved of Violettas.

Not only does Mme. Caselotti possess a voice of unusual quality, but she is a gifted dramatic artist and without doubt will make a tremendous hit here.

Luis D'Alvarez, celebrated Spanish tenor, formerly leading tenor in three prominent opera companies, will appear as "Alfredo." Possessing a voice of unusual quality, he also is a dramatic artist of great talent, with typical Spanish temperament. William Blust, appearing as "Germont," father of Alfredo, fills this important role in a distinguished way, interpreting the part with convincing sincerity.

A chorus of 50 singers, some of whom are chosen from Orange county's own talented artists, will be heard in connection with "La Traviata." A 30-piece orchestra, selected from members of the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, and directed by D. C. Cianfoni, well known Santa Ana musical leader, will complete a cast of approximately 85 members.

Plans For Union College Approved In Garden Grove

GARDEN GROVE, Oct. 29.—Speakers at the high school P.T.A. meeting last night expressed approval of plans for one junior college for Orange county. Those speaking included Ed Wakeham, J. O. Arkley and J. A. Knapp, president.

Announcement was made that a public meeting for a discussion of the college project would be held in Santa Ana November 14. The idea club under the direction of Miss Mary Macintosh presented numbers. Miss Margaret Raefsky, accompanied at the piano by Miss Eleanor Wisner, sang.

The P.T.A. will serve a benefit dinner at the high school December 13.

GOVERNOR OF ROTARIANS IN REACH SPEECH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—Harvey B. Lyon, governor of the second district of Rotary, told Rotarians here yesterday at a luncheon and meeting at the Golden Bear cafe that this the second district, which includes California, Nevada and the Hawaiian Islands, is the largest Rotary district in the world, with 153 Rotary clubs in the jurisdiction.

Governor Lyon, whose home is in Oakland, was on an inspection trip. His wife is accompanying him on the trip and the Rotary club of this city presented her with a bouquet of cut flowers at the luncheon.

Governor Lyon delivered the charge that is given new members in Rotary when Roy K. Smith, Dr. P. E. Sheehan and J. S. Bales were inducted into the club as new members. In a short but impressive service talk the governor stated that Rotary organized in 1905 was claimed by Paul Harris, its founder, to be the greatest single factor, outside of the Christian church, in elevating the standards of the business and professional world.

Mrs. Harry Bowman, soprano of Santa Ana, gave two songs, Mrs. Margaret Colvin playing the piano accompaniment. President Al Greer of the Rotary club introduced the district governor. A. J. Severson and Oscar Milbrat had charge of the program. Mr. Severson led in the singing of Rotary songs.

WEIGHED 96, GAINS 30 LBS.

"When my wife started taking Sargon, she only weighed 96 pounds and was in such terrible health, we thought we would lose her. But now, she weighs 126—a gain of 30 pounds in a few weeks' time."

MRS. ALFRED E. MYERS

"For nine years her liver was so sluggish that she was habitually constipated and had to take enemmas every day. Hemorrhoids caused her lots of suffering and she was sick in bed nearly all the time. Her nerves were all to pieces and she never got enough sleep. She suffered so with indigestion that she would go for days at a time without eating. She lost weight steadily and nothing seemed to help her until she started taking Sargon."

"Sargon Pills gave my wife the first normal elimination she has had in nine years. They regulated her perfectly. She never has to take enemmas any more and the hemorrhoids don't worry her. She has a splendid appetite now, and digests everything perfectly. She isn't nervous, her sleep is restful and she is so well and strong that she attends to her housework with ease. Sargon certainly worked wonders for her."—Alfred E. Myers, 129 12th St., Seal Beach, Calif.

Sargon may be obtained in Santa Ana at Schramm-Johnson, druggists.—Adv.

Editor Register:
Last night when I was driving in from Tustin on East First street I saw a large number of officers and one of them stopped me and asked me to drive up to a given point and the headlights on the car were thrown upon a screen and he said, "Too high," and asked me to pull up to a curb where I was greeted by Sergeant Hershey who handed me a ticket and said, "Sorry, old man, but you had better have those lights adjusted and then go to see Judge Talbott," and I did and the real reason for writing you is that I really regret that my lights were high and I am glad to know that they now are in focus because I have been blinded myself by lights on the other fellow's car when they were out of focus and wouldn't for the world have my lights endanger the lives of other people by blinding them and I think the police department is doing a fine job and should be commended.

SAINTS SEEK GAME FRIDAY

Walker, Hudkins Meet Tonight

EXPECT 20,000 TO SEE BATTLE FOR RING TITLE

By RONALD W. WAGGONER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Enthusiasm was at a high pitch in Los Angeles as two of the toughest warriors in the ring game prepared to battle in Wrigley field tonight for the middleweight title of the world.

Some time before 10 p. m.—the limit under the California law for starting a main event—Dan Tobey, veteran announcer, will step to the middle of an outdoor arena, before some 20,000 spectators and shrill in his siren voice:

"In this corner, Mickey Walker—the champion of the world."

And after the stocky "Bulldog" from New Jersey has taken his bow and his cheers, Dan will hold up his hand for silence—then shrill again:

"And in this corner, Ace Hudkins—

Nebraska wildcat and challenger for the title."

Not since Billy Papke knocked out Stanley Ketchel in this city 20 years ago last Labor day to win the middleweight title has Los Angeles been so worked up about a prizefight.

Betting was about even but there were indications that the odds will favor Walker by a slim margin at bell time.

Followers of the champion maintain Mickey have two big advantages in his favor. They say he can hit harder than the challenger and that he can duck a punch once in a while.

Hudkins, a plowing, mauling type of fighter, goes in swinging wildly and to date has relied largely on his bruising and constant hammering to gain decisions. His backers point out, however, that the Ace has a few tricks in his bag that Walker will see tonight.

Walker unconcerned over championship bout

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Oct. 29.—(INS)—Mickey Walker, weighing 147 pounds, a middleweight champion, should the day he defends his title, was resting today in deep unconcern about his battle tonight with Ace Hudkins.

Thirty thousand fans milled about the streets, little interested in any phase of life except the prospect of witnessing a contest that would be all fight and mostly action.

The stake before the challenger was the chance to come back against the titleholder who won a narrow decision over him in their first meeting at Chicago last year.

Hudkins goes into the ring with the backing of a horde of Southern California admirers. His whirlwind attack methods, his complete disregard of hard knocks, luring the career that started in an obscure Hollywood preliminary, made him the pet of the home crowd.

Walker, however, faced no hostile crowd. Nowhere was it realized better than in Los Angeles that the titleholder is a rugged, hard hitting scrapper, with true grit ability to take and give blows.

Walker was declared by his trainer, Teddy Hayes, to tip the scales at 151-2 pounds, 30 hours before ring time.

Hudkins completed his training with the equivalent of three rounds of boxing before a jammed house at a gymnasium, and at the close weighed 255-4 pounds. The challenger rested today, as did Walker.

Mandell Training For M'Larnin Mix

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—(INS)—Sammy Mandell, lightweight champion, today was hard at work training for his bout with Jimmy McLarnin of California next Monday night.

Yesterday the champion boxed four rounds and went through the usual gymnasium work. McLarnin is here and hard at work for the battle.

CORNELL CAPTAIN

Cornell university's Big Red football team a few years ago were feared throughout the east. Then followed a period when almost any kind of a team could tumble the Ithacans. It's another story this year, however, and Cornell Sam Wakeman, tackle, is one of the big reasons why the tale is different.

DONS MAY FILL BYE DATE WITH NIGHT CONTEST

BY "SKY" DUNLAP

Night football may again be tested by a Santa Ana football team if Coach Bill Cook of the Santa Ana junior college can conclude arrangements with the Anaheim All-Stars, a group of players now out of school, to play a practice game with the Dons Friday night.

The Class C team at the high school was the first local squad to perform under lights this season, the game being played at Anaheim. The varsity then played Pasadena in the Rose Bowl two weeks ago. Cook has been dickering for some time with the Anaheim All-Stars for a night game, and as the Dons have a "bye" date Saturday, the game would be played Friday night.

Football men of considerable ability are members of the Anaheim squad, the personnel including Joe Ochoa, star night baseball pitcher who plays quarterback; Bill Poe, former jaycee boy and 200-pound tackle; Red Wallen, 190-pound fullback; and Julian Martinez, flashy halfback. Cook only wants to give every member of the team a good workout and keep his Padres in trim for future games.

In the event that the night game falls through, Coach Cook will play the Beatty All-Stars, a pickup team from Santa Ana, on the local turf Friday afternoon. Beatty's boys played the Dons once before and gave them real opposition. Included on this team are such stars as Blanchard Beatty, one of the best all around athletes ever developed at the local college; Curt Youel, three-year veteran center on high school eleven; Don Woodington, captain and center of the Dons last year; Jack Casey, guard on both the Dons and Saints; Bill Schooning, lanky end; Warren ("Red") Cooke, end and three years for Coach "Tex" Oliver; "Red" Edwards, former Don guard; Jasper, tackle; Harkleroad, tackle, and Trickey, halfback. If the All-Stars are lacking in any position, Cook will loan them some of his players.

The Dons came out of their skirmish with Chaffey last Saturday in tip-top shape except for Leonard Macintosh, who was injured before the game. While warming up, Macintosh collided with another player and cut his cheekbone severely. San Bernardino is next on the Dons' conference schedule, coming to Santa Ana November 9.

CALIFORNIA AT WORK FOR BIG GAME SATURDAY

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—Coach "Nibs" Price and his University of California football varsity today swung into the final period of preparation at Berkeley for next Saturday's clash with Southern California at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

Three days of intensive, driving drill remain, and then the Bears en-train for the Southland.

The California squad, at least 45 men strong, will leave Berkeley Thursday evening at 8:15 on the "Padre," arriving the next morning at Glendale station, and going directly to Hotel Huntington, Pasadena, which will be the team's headquarters. One short workout Friday afternoon, probably at the Coliseum, will serve to put the finishing touches on the Bear team that has been slowly evolving through various tribulations and trials to prepare to meet the Trojans of U. S. C.

According to all indications, Price's men will present a considerably augmented style of attack. The first string eleven that defeated Pennsylvania started, with surprising suddenness, to prepare for the Los Angeles encounter immediately after their home-coming by rehearsing new plays and engaging in scrimmage unequalled all season for strenuousness.

The Trojan-California squabble is likely to develop into a battle between two powerful lines, and spectators can reasonably expect to see line play of a calibre not often seen in these parts.

The Pennsylvania game uncovered some California line men of hitherto unsuspected, or at least unrecognized, worth. Earl Schwarz turned in a game that placed him among the country's leading guards in the estimation of eastern critics. Captain Roy Riegels at center played brilliantly, and Joe Pille, a guard who was labeled "second string material" in the early season, has come from behind in remarkable fashion.

If California and U. S. C. both resort to the mauling game, the giant ends of both teams should furnish plenty of color for the contest. Russ Avery, the six-foot-two 235-pounder, should have an interesting afternoon with Francis Tappan of U. S. C., and Bob Norton, blue-fingered Bear wingman, will face either Tony Stepanovich or Garrett Arbelbide.

In the backfield, Lee Eisan, slipper little safety man and quarterback, will match wits with Russ Saunders, key man of the Trojan offense and leading southern candidate.

Jackie Fields Signs To Meet Corbett

OAKLAND, Oct. 29.—A non-title bout between Jackie Fields, welterweight champion, and Young Corbett, of Fresno, to be staged at the Oakland ball park Washington's birthday, February 22, was announced today by Louie Parente, promoter of the East Bay Athletic club. A number of San Francisco promoters were known to have been angling for that fight, but were "scooped" by the Oaklander.

Fields has been guaranteed $30,000 for his share, while Corbett's allotment was not mentioned.

LIMBACO FACES GEORGE TASKER HERE TONIGHT

Trip Limbaco and George Tasker, featherweights of more than average ability, headline tonight's boxing show at the Orange County Athletic club here. They are listed to go eight rounds, or less, at 122 pounds.

The Limbaco-Tasker affair will be the first meeting of featherweights here since early summer. Welters, middleweights and boys of other fistic divisions have been doing the program featuring at Henry T. Foust's place of business.

Limbaco is a veteran Filipino who recently stopped the featherweight champion of Mexico, Blas Rodriguez, at Juarez, in five heats. Trip rates as one of the coast's best fighters. Tasker, a new one in Dick Dillard's San Diego stable, is supposed to be a hot number. He has battled Sammy Mandell among others.

The supporting card follows: Joe Reese vs. Pete Toft, welterweights, six rounds.

Hank Gatten vs. Babe Jackson, middleweights, six rounds.

"Tex" Stinnett vs. Bob Ratliff, welterweights, four rounds.

Joe Lomax vs. Al Tedford, heavyweights, four rounds.

FENCERS AT PITT

The University of Pittsburgh this year was added to the list of eastern colleges having fencing teams. Pitt coaches anticipate a strong team in the intercollegiate campaign next spring.

BREA-OLINDANS REFUSE CHANGE TO PLAY HERE

A two weeks' lull in Coast Preparatory league football competition will not keep Santa Ana high school's powerful squad, joint leaders of the race, in the employment agencies looking for work if Coach "Tex" Oliver can help it.

Coach Oliver and Ray Adkinson, vice-principal in charge of athletic relations, were trying today to line up a suitable opponent for the undefeated Saints.

They want a game Friday afternoon at Boly field. They also want, and are virtually to get, a contest the following week. Conference competition will not be resumed until November 16 when the Glendale Dynamiters invade the Santa Ana turf.

Brea-Olinda Game Off

Santa Ana almost had a contest arranged with "Shorty" Smith's strong Brea-Olinda aggregation, rated as the best club in the Orange league, but after once tentatively agreeing to the affair Coach Smith tabled the proposition for fear of having some of his players injured before the Brea-Fullerton contest November 8. That is the game Smith wants to win above all others. He is a former Fullerton coach and has no great love for his old school.

Brea-Olinda, big, experienced and fast, would give the Saints some colorful, capable opposition and Oliver was disappointed when the arrangements did not go through. The Oilers started slowly, dropping a 12 to 6 decision to Orange in a last game, but have made 139 points in their last three games, 40 against Huntington Beach, 56 against Garden Grove and 43 against Escelsior.

Three Schools Considered

Los Angeles Poly, Santa Maria and Santa Barbara are three schools that may be "felt out" for a game here Friday. Santa Maria has conquered Santa Barbara, Bakersfield and is rated as the best balanced team in that region.

November 8 has been set aside for C. I. F. challenge games and it now appears that the Saints will face here that day Bill Cole's Tustin Farmers, one of the best outfits in the Orange league. Orange and Huntington Beach will close Armistice day and Brea-Olinda will oppose Fullerton so Tustin is the strongest Orange league competition available.

If he is unable to schedule a Friday game within the next day or two, Coach Oliver probably will give his Saints a brief respite from practice, he announced. The squad came (Continued on Page 7)

COURAGEOUS LEADER OF THE GOLDEN BEARS

Roy Riegels, captain of the University of California football squad, was a "goat" last year but he has been playing heroic football for the Berkeley outfit this season and if he makes a good showing against U. S. C. Saturday and against Stanford later in the campaign he probably will be All-American center.

HE OFFERED NO EXCUSES FOR THE "BONER" NOW HE'S A HERO AND AN ALL-AMERICA PROBABILITY.

PUNTS AND PASSES

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 29.—Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame probably will not be able to leave here with his team when it departs for the Georgia Tech game next Saturday, according to reports. Rockne went to Pittsburgh, where his boys won from Carnegie Tech last Saturday but he came home in a highly nervous condition, which necessitates rest, his doctors said.

Suffering from an infection in his right leg, Rockne apparently is in more pain than for several days and the congestion is reported to have become worse.

Tom Lieb, assistant to Rockne, who has been directing the team during the head coach's illness said the only remedy for Rockne's condition is rest but that the Notre Dame football boss is not in a critical condition.

BERKELEY, Oct. 29.—In order that every possible moment may be devoted to practice before the U. S. C. game Saturday, floodlights have been installed on the Southwest practice field, so that the California gridmen may continue their scrimmages after sundown. A white football is used.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 29.—University of Oregon's football team settled down today to strenuous practice sessions in preparation for its first home appearance in a conference game against U. C. L. A. Saturday. The team rested Monday.

PULLMAN, Wash., Oct. 29.—Washington State gridgers, preparing for the Oregon State game at Portland, are working hard on a passing defense this week. All the players came through last week's practice game with Whitman in good condition and are pointing to Schissler's battling Beavers.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 29.—Coach Bill Spaulding of the University of California at Los Angeles announced (Continued on Page 7)

Offered No Excuse

Riegels' mortification and disgust must have been colossal. But he offered no excuses and shouldered the blame in silence. The blunder was broadcast throughout the country. Riegels became a marked man.

Today Roy Riegels, by his great fight from ignominy, has made of himself a hero. He is captain of the team and his play in the early games of this season has been of the highest efficiency.

There are plenty of cheers for Riegels. He is spoken of as All-American material by writers on the coast as well as in the east, where just recently he played a big part in his team's victory over Pennsylvania.

Riegels has proved he had plenty of the old red courage. And he has shown himself a great sportsman by keeping his mouth shut and playing all the harder.

KAMM IS BEST

To Willie Kamm of the Chicago White Sox goes the honor of ranking first among the American league third basemen five years in a row.

The way Risko tore into Maloney was a sight. You'd think he had to get the thing over with in order to catch a train. Risko is like that—very good when he is right, and very bad when he's off his onions. Maloney lasted two rounds, although he was out on his feet most of the time.

Risko, the boys and girls all remember, once gave the Boston Squire a lesson in the manly art. He might do just that thing again. Max kayced Johnny, but Risko was not in the form he displayed the other night in Cleveland.

BALM FOR BAGSHAW

Coach Enoch ("Doc") Bagshaw has resigned as coach at the University of Washington. Football teams are expected to win games, and Doc's teams have not formed that habit. The student board of control tried to pay off the Doc last winter, but he has stuck to his guns until now.

Something like this happened at Yale when Tad Jones' teams started playing beanbag several years ago. Alumni and students reared upon their hind legs and Mr. Jones stepped out.

Mr. Jones must be enjoying a laugh at this time, for alumni and undergrads still are barking—at Mal Stevens now, because Yale lost to Georgia. Mal responded to the demand of the undergrads and alumni and gave Yale some Warner and Rockne monkey business to try on the enemy. It didn't elick.

The only way you can get along with alumni and undergrads is to win games. And, since all these teams cannot do that all of the time it follows that the life of a coach is not a happy one. Mr. Bagshaw is offered this philosophy free.

BIG-FOOTED BACKS

Perhaps Doc Bagshaw's backfield men all have small feet. Lay observers might think big feet a great handicap to backfield men, but it seems such is not the case. Zuppke likes his backfield boys with large dogs. He points to "Red" Grange, whose feet are like violin cases. Chris Cagle also is said to have a couple of nice satchels to stand on—though he doesn't stand in one place very long. Those oversized bunions serve them well when they have to shift rapidly, as in open-field running. Lads with small feet are more easily tipped over.

WORDS FROM SCHMELING

Max Schmeling, the Hurtful Hamburger, takes cable to hand to let his board of American managers know he is "a little sick," having hurt his leg in jumping from the stage. He reported he would be confined to bed in Frankfurt, Germany, for some time.

Joe Jacobs, head of the holding corporation which controls the American patent on the Hurtful Hamburger, at once looked up the boats to Europe. He wants to

TUSTIN ELEVEN PLAYS ANAHEIM SQUAD FRIDAY

With first divisioners facing second division teams Friday afternoon no upsets are looked for in the Orange league's football race this week.

The undefeated Orangemen play their last home game of the season with Garden Grove which is hardly expected to disturb the league leaders.

Huntington Beach, surprising victor over Covina in a non-conference tussle, plays the weak Excelsior Wildcats at Huntington Beach.

Here's How Star Caught Own Pass

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 29.—Questions by the score have reached Marquette university following publication in many newspapers of a syndicated cartoon which showed Capt. Irving Langhoff of Marquette's 1919 eleven "catching his own forward pass."

The athletic records at the school show that in the North Dakota game of 1919, Capt. Langhoff tossed a pass to his right end, who juggled it. A North Dakota man then took his turn at juggling the pigskin and meanwhile, Langhoff ran in on the play, grabbed the ball and took it for a 20-yard gain.

Frances Willard Lighties Beaten By Orange, 15-6

The Frances E. Willard junior high school 110-pound football team lost to the Orange high school "Cees" yesterday at Lincoln field by a score of 15 to 6.

Both teams made a touchdown in the first half, neither team converting. The Indians made their touchdown when Anderson, an end, intercepted a lateral pass and ran 50 yards.

The Orange team made its touchdown on a forward pass. Orange got a safety in the fourth quarter by blocking a kick and a Willard man fell on the ball behind the goal. The "Cees" scored again in the last minute of play and converted just as the whistle blew.

With his squad free from injuries, Jones' only worry is the mental attitude of his players after the Stanford win.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29. Huntington Beach high school's class, D football team defeated the "1930" squad of Julia Lathrop junior high of Santa Ana here yesterday afternoon, 14 to 6, in as tough and hard fought gridiron game as has been seen on the high school field this year.

The coach was well pleased with the team's showing against the champion Moors. He thought the Saints' blocking was better than it has been all year. Like all coaches, however, Oliver thinks there still is room for improvement.

MISS SKINNER ON EVEREADY PROGRAM

Cornelia Otis Skinner, distinguished stage star, will be the guest artist of Eveready Hour for its program tonight over the NBC and KFI, starting at 6 o'clock.

In recent years Miss Skinner has fulfilled the prediction of dramatic critics that she would follow the footsteps of her famous father, Otis Skinner, who for more than a generation has been one of the leading stars of the American and English stage.

For her broadcast over Eveready Hour Miss Skinner has chosen four of the sketches which have made her famous here and abroad. The first of these is called "Snow Bound" and is a dramatic record of two small-time vaudeville "hoofers" who, marooned by a blizzard in a small western town, recount their dreams of the big day when Broadway will acclaim them.

Under the direction of Nathaniel Shilkret, the Eveready orchestra will present a program of background music for Miss Skinner's broadcast.

SCRAP OF THE AGES
BALTIMORE, Oct. 29.—A true battle of the ages, which drew one of the biggest crowds that ever saw a street brawl here, was waged between Joseph Rafilowski, 72, and his wife, Mary, 72. The two battlers were going at it hammer and tongs with tools intended for shoe repairing. Patrolman Slagle, who arrested them, couldn't understand what it was all about, because the couple were indulging in a heated argument in Polish.

Paul's Programs Again Originate On Pacific Coast

Paul the First, King of Jazz, has moved himself, his technical retinue and most noble and symphonic of orchestras from New York to Hollywood. Tonight, and every Tuesday night for some time to come, King Paul will hold court in the studios of KHJ, the Don Lee station in Los Angeles and the Los Angeles terminal of the Columbia Broadcasting system. The program, of course, will follow the well worn coast-to-coast route.

For the last week, Mr. Whiteman and his technical staff have been rearranging the microphone set-up to accommodate the big orchestra and its unique grouping of instruments.

Featured among the numbers to be heard tonight will be a new Whiteman arrangement of the famous Schubert "Marche Militaire" and two selections from the new musical comedy, "Great Day." The talkies also will be represented through the inclusion of selections from "Broadway Melody" and "Our Modern Maidens."

Bar P. E. Freight Trains From City In Daylight Hours

NEW ORDINANCE GOVERNS S. A. RAIL OPERATION

Freight trains of the Pacific Electric company no longer will roll over Fourth street and block traffic during daylight hours, for the city council last night adopted an ordinance re-establishing limitations on the company recently removed in anticipation of immediate building of a factory here by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company.

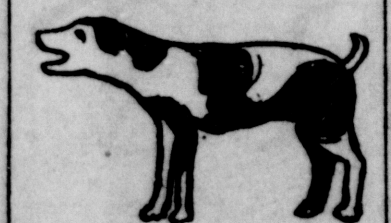

During negotiations for location of the big plant here it was pointed out that building operations would be delayed unless machinery and materials could be moved in during the day and former restrictions on the railroad company were eliminated. The company now may move freight trains through the city between the hours of 10 p. m. and 6 a. m.

E. Clark, superintendent of the southern division of the Pacific Electric company, appeared before the board and appealed for permission for the company to operate one freight train out of the city around 6 p. m. In his discussion he revealed that following rescission by the council of former restrictions as to daylight operation of trains, the company had changed a night train to a daylight train, operating with Orange as the starting point and the train leaving that city in the late afternoon.

Shippers Benefited
In presenting his appeal for permission to continue this service, Clark said it was of particular advantage to shippers of perishable products from Garden Grove. He pointed out that it now is possible to pick up shipments in Garden Grove and place the carload shipments in trains out of Los Angeles without delay in Los Angeles. Under the night operation, he said, fruit picked up in Garden Grove and other stations along the route had to remain in Los Angeles until 11 o'clock the next night before being forwarded to eastern destinations.

While expressing a sympathetic feeling for shippers in Garden Grove, councilmen declared that they could not countenance the serious inconvenience to merchants and the traveling public by permitting continued operation of trains over Fourth and Main streets during business hours.

SECRETARY OF SCHOOL BOARD AT L. A. MEET

Walter Morgan, director of statistics of the California department of education, has been meeting with a committee of budget forms and annual reports of the Public School Business Officials' Association of California in the office of W. E. Record, business manager of the Los Angeles board of education and president of the state association. It was announced here today.

This committee is working to determine the proper forms and classifications for the preparation of budgets for school districts and the reports of the expenditures of school funds to the state board of education.

The committee is composed of Minor Phillips, auditor of the Pasadena board of education, chairman; Miss Elizabeth Phillips, secretary of the board of education, Santa Ana; Frank E. Searle, auditor of the board of education, Long Beach, and M. P. Haviken, deputy auditor of the Los Angeles board of education.

A similar committee is working in the northern section of the state for permission to operate a taxicab service at 204 North Broadway was referred to a committee composed of Stanley Goode, W. J. Kelly and Clyde Jenken.

Requests were granted for installation of electric signs at 1301 and 1312 West Fourth street.

Annexation Asked
A petition, filed by John Mangold, for annexation of a portion of his ranch property at Seventeenth and Wright streets, was referred to City Attorney Swanner for investigation as to whether the property could be taken into the city without a vote by persons residing in the district. There are only two voters, Mr. and Mrs. Mangold, and it was the opinion of the city attorney, expressed off-hand, that a procedure could be found that would make it possible for annexation without the expense of an election.

The council met at 6 o'clock last night and, following adjournment at 7 o'clock, members of the body and other city officials journeyed to Seal Beach to be present at ceremonies in formal opening of the new city hall there.

SHERMAN HITS RACES ON BAY IN BEACH TALK

NEWPORT BEACH, Oct. 29.—A. B. Rousselle and H. L. Sherman, who have left for a six months tour of the lesser known parts of the world, made their parting addresses yesterday at the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce dinner.

Sherman, in responding to a request for a few words, stated that he hoped that in planning the program for the next year that proper consideration would be given to the great mass of property owners who use the city of Newport Beach for residence purposes, and not cater to the wishes of a few, who are not even taxpayers. He said that the outboard motorboat races let down the bars and turned the bay over to a noise-making crowd of enthusiasts making living unbearable and making the bay unsafe for the uses that most of the dwellers desire.

The merchants here are dependent on those who make this their home for a month or a year, and their interests are identical, he said. He finished with the plea to his fellow directors that they give due consideration to the idea.

As the result of the receipt of a communication from Charles J. Shields, of San Diego, by the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce, a rowing tournament probably will be staged on Newport bay in the near future.

Contests in single sculling, four-oar boats and eight-oar shells are contemplated. Frank Smith, the chairman of the sports committee of the chamber of commerce, has been appointed to take the matter up with his committee and arrange the event at an early date if possible.

George Raymer, secretary of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, was a guest at the monthly meeting of the directors of the chamber of commerce and made a plea for co-operation between the two chambers of commerce, stating that a strong co-operative action by both bodies would materially help in bringing to a successful termination several prospective additions to the county that are in the making, and that might be expected to culminate in the next six or eight months.

He also stated that a blanket measure drawn up under section 18 of state of California, covering harbor development, flood control and water conservation was being given consideration by a group of citizens who were looking forward to some plan by which county improvements could be furthered.

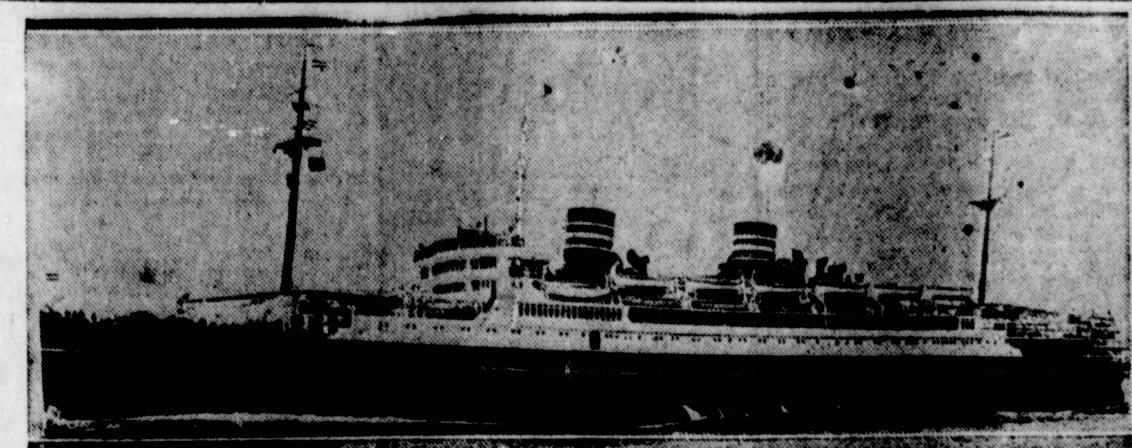

Americanization School Is Opened

BOLSA, Oct. 29.—The new Hoover Americanization school which has for several years past been connected with the Bolsa school district and which since the consolidation of the Bolsa and Garden Grove districts became the school for Mexican pupils of both former districts, has been completed and opened Monday. The school equipment was moved Saturday from the two rooms which have been in use by Mrs. Tinsley and Mrs. Tomlinson, who have had entire charge of all of the grades of Mexican pupils.

Bob Richardson is janitor for both schools.

The N. Y. K. motorship Asama Maru, which is the largest, fastest and finest merchantman ever built by Japanese, has been placed in commission, and following its maiden cruise, will operate in the San Francisco-Oriental service. The Asama Maru cost $7,000,000, is 584 feet long, and has a 21-knot cruising speed.

PAST, PRESENT O. E. S. MATRONS ARE HONORED

The spirit of Hallowe'en was exemplified at the meeting of Santa Ana chapter, Order of Eastern Star, at a reception for new members and a Brothers' night program in the Masonic temple Saturday night. Both the banquet hall and reception room were elaborately decorated with bright chrysanthemums, fall leaves and spook season features.

Miss Elizabeth Roehm acted as spokesman for the sisters and Eugene Heiss was spokesman for the brothers.

One feature of especial interest was noted when the past matrons of '28 came to the meeting in a body and presented the worthy matron, who originally was a member of their association, a silver card tray. These women were Mrs. Elsie Buchanan, of Fullerton; Kitty Kelly Smith, Fullerton; Edith McCool, Huntington Beach; May Pearson, Garden Grove, and Vera Wetlin, Orange.

Present matrons who were escorted to the East were Hazel Smalley, Fullerton; Irene Mitchell, Hermosa chapter; Pearl Kelly, Anaheim; and Bessie Day, Garden Grove.

An unusually entertaining program was presented. Artists appearing were the Mustel sisters, in violin and piano numbers; George Stinson, the singing cop, accompanied by Mrs. Ralph Adams; Margaret Gaebe, in pianologues, accompanied by Allen Lair; Dr. R. Grover and James Sewell, vocal duets, accompanied by Miss Lair, and Mrs. Grover, in whistling selections, accompanied by Miss Lair.

Christ Our Only Savior Asserts Woman Preacher

Mrs. Virginia Brendt Berg, the Florida evangelist, who is conducting meetings in the Alliance chapel, Cypress and Bishop, spoke to a capacity audience last night on the text, "There Is No Difference." She clearly showed that so far as salvation is concerned there is no difference between the moral man and the drunkard. The keeping of the law never can save anyone, she declared.

"The law is but a mirror, revealing our condition. My little boy looks in the mirror and is convinced his face is dirty, but he cannot wash his face with the mirror. He must use water for that. Just so the law will reveal our condition but nothing but the blood of Christ can cleanse us."

"There was but one family saved in the city of Jericho when God gave it to His people and that was not the best moral family in the city, but the family of the harlot, Rahab. And she was saved, not because she was a harlot, but because there was a scarlet rope over the window. Just so with us; unless the blood of Christ is on the door post of our hearts whether we be moral or immoral we are forever lost."

13 CANDIDATES ARE INITIATED BY ENGINEERS

A steak dinner, followed by the first initiation of the year, featured the Santa Ana high school Engineering club's celebration in Irvine park, last night, when 13 candidates for membership were put through one of the stiffest initiations in recent years.

Twenty-nine Engineers met in the park for supper. Pudding, egg shampoo, flypaper plasters, peppers, pills and other various torments were administered to the "goats" amid much hilarity. From the park the club went to Orange, where the initiates donned dresses and paraded through the business district. The climax of the initiation was a long walk home for the new members.

Associate members in the junior college sponsored the initiation. Those in this group were Thomas Cone, George Berry, Orville Schuchardt, Carl Planchon, John Dunlap, Charley Greenleaf, Ernest Cardwell, Curtis Pierson, William Minor, John Seccrest and Charles Homan.

Regular members present were Harold Long, Harry Clayton, Kiyoshi Higashi, Paul Jacques, Dale Van Gorkum and Charles Tibbets, faculty advisor, while the new members were Paul Wright, Henry Schreff, Bob McFarland, Herbert Jackson, Bill Hawk, Merwin Carmen, Ray Kohler, Bill Cowley, Norman Paul, Bernard Sharpley, Andrew Mahr, Chester Cook and Roy Forrest.

"Story of Jack London" Related to Ebbl by His Daughter

Vouchsafed an intimate view of a man whose name is daily growing in lustre in America's annals of letters, Ebbl society and its guests from other women's clubs of the county yesterday had the rare experience of hearing "My Story of Jack London," delivered by the writer's daughter, Joan London, as the special program for Ebbl Reciprocity day.

General interest in the program was manifested by the large attendance, and Mrs. Robert G. Tut-till, president, had the pleasure of presenting to the assembled clubwomen, their county federation president, Mrs. Joseph Thurston, of Laguna Beach, who in turn introduced presidents of county clubs who were present. This group included Mrs. Lewis of Garden Grove Women's club; Mrs. Harrison of Fullerton Ebbl; Mrs. Thomas Cummings, Laguna Beach Women's club; Mrs. Cox, Brea Women's club; Mrs. William Whitehead, Santa Ana Women's club; Mrs. Johns, Los Alamitos Women's club; Mrs. Moran, Newport Beach, Ebbl, and Mrs. Summers, Women's Club of Newport Beach. County and district chairmen were also present, after which Mrs. Tut-till, in her poised and gracious manner, reminded the clubwomen of Ebbl Reciprocity day just a year ago, when Ruth Bryan Owen was the interesting speaker, and declared that again Ebbl society had the honor of introducing a famous daughter of a famous father in the person of Joan London.

Dark, dynamic, vital, Joan London's appearance seemed to bring her father himself before the audience, so like his pictures did she seem in her brunet forcefulness. Launching at once into her subject with the liveliest enthusiasm, she explained the feeling that had impelled her to supplement her memories of Jack London, the father, with any possible knowledge of Jack London, the man, that she might gain.

Her memories were those of a playfellow, a boy who romped with his two little daughters, teaching them self-control and fearlessness through the sheer force of his personality. His untimely death while she was a mere child left Joan London to grow up with the idea of learning all she could about him as the writer and man who became famous, although in seeking out companions of his manhood days, she declared that she found they could tell her little of him, but only of themselves in relation to him.

Going back to the family history of this boy, born of pioneer parents on Jan. 12, 1876, in Oakland, she told of his little boyhood on a poverty-stricken ranch in the Livermore valley until he was six years old when the family returned to Oakland, and life carried him to the ocean front where he carried a paper route "in the worst section of the city."

"He may be pictured, a drunken bum at 17, yet with good clean, brave stuff of his forefathers which kept him from drifting down the years, a waterfront bum all his life." His rise began with a trip to the sealing banks off the coast of Japan, from which he returned with brain, body and soul cleared from alcohol. Then came that first eager pursuit of an education which caused him to crowd over three years of high school work in a few short months, fitting him to enter the university at 19. But a dissatisfaction with university standards and life sent him forth after the first semester, Alaska beckoned and although he got no gold—"only discouragement," according to his daughter, yet it was an answer to that driving inner urge.

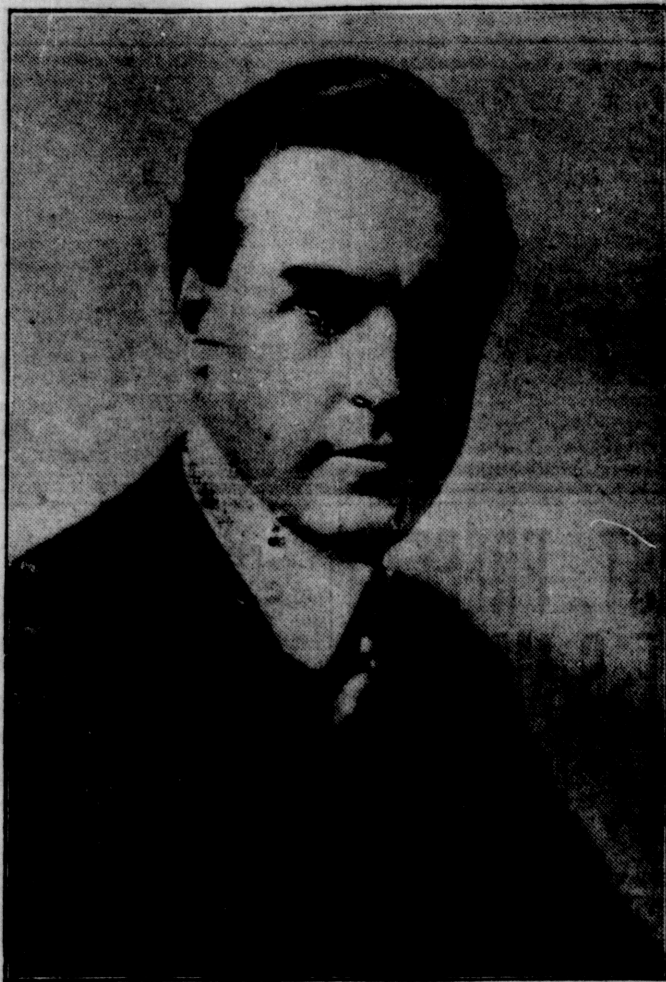

His first story accepted by the Overland Monthly on his twenty-third birthday, was his first bit of success, and from that point, his rise was sketched rapidly, dramatically, with a careful criticism of his work, whether good or bad, beginning with "Daughter of the Snows," characterized as "a very bad novel indeed." The four periods into which his written works automatically divide themselves, were characterized as showing evidence of that spirit which led Fred Lewis Pattee to designate him as "The Prophet of the Last Frontier," a title that finally gave his daughter her understanding of Jack London, the man. She sketched the western drift of the frontiers of civilization, and explained how in his Alaskan sand again in his South Seas trips, London had "followed the last frontier" and how even his socialistic works showed the same spirit pioneering in a different field.

"His was a unique post as the last of the old school of writers, and a member of the new group to break away from all traditions of American letters and found the school of American actualism," she declared, stating after all that his proudest title so far as his daughters were concerned was that of "The Prince of Story Tellers," and closing her really remarkable talk with his "Shark Story," told with unexcelled dramatic force.

As the final feature of their hospitality, the Ebbl hostesses served tea in the peacock room, with four past presidents, Mrs. Victor Montgomery, Mrs. Edward M. Neale, Mrs. Samuel W. Nau and Mrs. F. E. Coulter, presiding at the flower-decked tables, and a group of hospitality committee members serving the dainty tea menu provided.

PIANIST TO APPEAR HERE

Guy Bevier Williams, concert pianist and teacher, of Hollywood, is the latest addition to the faculty of Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, and will have prominent place on the first faculty recital of the season, to be presented Friday night at 8 o'clock in Ebbl auditorium. The recital will be open to the public and the program will be a varied one of piano, vocal, instrumental and expression numbers.

In announcing the first faculty recital of the year for the Santa Ana Conservatory of Music, to be held Friday night, November 1, in the Ebbl auditorium, it was revealed that Guy Bevier Williams, one of the most noted piano artists and teachers of the Southland, had been added to the faculty, and would make his first appearance in this city on that night. The recital will be open to the public.

Williams' first success as a concert pianist was gained in Europe where he received the greater part of his musical education under the unexcelled tutelage offered by Berlin before the war, and where he made his debut on the concert stage in famous Saal-Bechstein, receiving the enthusiastic plaudits of critics. After a season of concertizing in this country, he returned to Europe to pursue his studies in the French school so that in his interpretations of the classics and the moderns, he is declared to show the scope and versatility coming from such varied sources of training. For his Santa Ana premiere, he has chosen two Debussy numbers, "Prelude in A flat major" and "The Sunken Cathedral."

To be featured on the program will be C. D. Cianfoni, trombonist and founder and head of the Conservatory; Margherita Marsden, Mrs. Taylor Johnston and Carl Sibbert of the voice department; Rita Topitsky June Hartman and Vernon Robinson, piano; Gladys Simpson Shafer and Harriet Callaway, expression. Mrs. Simpson has announced that she will present a cast of pupils in "The Turtle Dove," a one-act fantasy in the Chinese manner.

Vernon Robinson of the piano department, is also an accomplished pipe organist and as such will have charge of organ classes as soon as the fine new instrument, now on its way to this city, is installed at the conservatory. The organ is an Estey and will be installed and ready for use within a month, according to Cianfoni.

Mother and Daughter Preside Over Bridge

The attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Briggs of 644 North Broadway was the setting yesterday for another of the delightful bridge luncheons being presented this month by Mrs. Briggs and her daughter, Mrs. Howard Timmons of Tustin.

Adding to the charm of the home was the profusion of gay yellow chrysanthemums and purple salvia and the colors were used in various features of the party including clever little place cards and tallies.

Assisting Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Timmons throughout the afternoon were Mrs. Earl Morrow and Mrs. J. N. Harding. They also assisted in collecting tallies when scores were added at the conclusion of the happy afternoon. Mrs. Charles Kelly and Mrs. Roy Hall, who were high, received attractive gifts.

B. P. W. Club Stages Merry Party for Halloween

Not to be outdone by other clubs and organizations now so light-heartedly celebrating the Halloween season, October program committee members of San-gam Business and Professional Women's club last night followed suit with an extremely enjoyable party for the clubwomen, for which Miss Mabel Rockwell placed her dance studio at their disposal.

Miss Rockwell is always generous in turning this spacious studio over to her sister clubwomen, and various parties have been held there, but none with more unique decorations than those of last night, superintended by Miss Rockwell and Mrs. Della Maude Ryan. Especially effective was the original manner of utilizing the tall posts for witches in curious garb.

Miss Lorraine French, chairman, Dr. Mary Wright, Fredda Moesser Barger, Miss Mayme Brightwell, Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Alice Peterson as the finance committee, had the aid of the social committee in carrying out all plans. Miss Louise Kaiser is chairman of this group whose members are Mrs. Loyal K. King, Miss Lee Patton, Harriett Bonnell and Golden S. Norwood.

Bridge was the popular diversion and Miss Boyd Joplin took first honors, Mrs. Lula Blackburn, second, and Mrs. Helen Curtis, low. But there were other special gifts bestowed—door prizes, lucky numbers, hidden Halloween symbols, etc., until the list of those surprised with pretty gifts included Miss Mabel Larrick, Mrs. Marjorie Joplin, Miss Nancy Elder, Miss Helene Kubitz and Miss Lula Ott.

A special feature of the evening was provided by Miss Rockwell who told fortunes with cards for a long line of patrons, eager to read what the future held.

Members and friends sharing the evening included Nancy Elder, Mabel Benjamin, Adelaide Cochran, Mabel Rockwell, Helen Edwards, Frances Ahlene, Helen Gallagher, Elizabeth Perkins, Martha Whitson, Lee Patton, Marjorie Joplin, Genevieve Humiston, Lula Ott, Corinne Beach, Boyd Joplin, Lillian Fitzpatrick, Eleanor Elliott, Emma Lee Johnson, Helen Curtis, Mary Smart, Myrtle Robinson, Lula Blackburn, Rae House, Clara Cooke, Laura Murray, Lena Thomas, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Charles S. Riggs, Mrs. Ruth Riley, Hazel C. Northcross, Helen Lutz, Lorraine French, Damaris Beem, Minnie Mayhill, Mayme Brightwell, Helene Kubitz, Mabel Wiseman, Alice V. Waser, Mabel C. Larrick, Fredda Moesser Barger, Louise Kaiser and Harriett Whidden.

Halloween Masquerade

Members of Capistrano Institute, Y. L. L. and their friends are looking forward with a great deal of pleasure to tonight's Halloween masquerade which is to be presented under the auspices of the group at the Knights of Columbus hall, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

Plans for the delightful affair are being made under the direction of Mrs. A. L. Steward who has as her assistants, Miss Margaret Young, Mrs. S. Markel and Mrs. Emma Duarte.

Are All Men "Babies"?

Sometimes I Think It Is BUT Sometimes I Think It Isn't

By VELVA G. DARLING

A man may LOVE his wife, but he ADORES her as a mother. In fact, he frequently stops calling her by her first name when she bears him children, and calls her simply "Mother." Every man longs to find in his wife a new mother to revivify his first mother love. Women—mothers and wives, love their own mothers, too, but the instinct for motherhood in every woman makes her more eager to mother somebody ELSE than to be mothered herself. If you want to have a man twined around your little finger, all you have to do is MOTHER him! Take care of him! He needs it—like great trees need sun and air. He, and his brother and father and son yearn to be petted and babied and fussed over—and will all the days of their life. Every mother of a large family will tell you that the biggest baby she's got is her husband.

But on the OTHER hand, in moments of intense excitement like war or a sinking steamship or an earthquake, every man—practically without exception—instead of expecting to be babied, immediately takes charge and proceeds to baby the woman! I happened to be at Santa Barbara when they had their earthquake several years ago. The majority of the women I noticed were appallingly on edge emotionally. If a truck rumbled by shaking the ground a bit, they jumped and screamed in terror. Every man near them was kept busy soothing the fears and jumping nerves of panicky women. One episode I recall vividly—somebody was thought to have been caught in a falling building and buried beneath its debris. A woman who had been standing near me watching the frantic work at the pile, turned suddenly and in a hysterical voice cried, "Oh, isn't it just TERRIBLE! Somebody is buried in there, maybe ALIVE!" And she began literally to wring her hands! Not one man, however, stood lamenting anywhere. They were all laboring coolly, intelligently and with intense effort. Certainly all the babying that was done was expended not upon men but upon the absurdly hysterical women.

Sometimes I think that men were given by far the bigger percentage of adult self-control and the ability to forget self in service to others. As long as there is anyone who needs help or any situation that calls for their aid, men are capable of working continuously—almost super-humanly. But on the other hand, there is no force so appealing and so essential to all men as mother love. Women seem perfectly capable of getting along without it—but no man can live without it, and once he has it he will fight his last breath to keep it. The man who doesn't receive his daily babying is the most woe-begone, unhappy, dismal creature God ever created.

A Blanket For Your Nerves

If you have among your friends one who is very thin, whether from excessive dieting or ill health, I want you to notice what irritates him . . . the sudden slamming of a door . . . a crying child . . . small squeaks in an automobile . . . the clanging of a street car bell . . . the reiteration of some monotonous note in jazz music . . . and above all, long-drawn out, unnecessary conversation.

Nerves ought to be as well-behaved as veins and arteries, and would be if the thoughtless human being did not strip off his blanket, the thin layer of fat which covers and insulates nerve tissue.

With this fat blanket dangerously thin, the impact of noise reaches the sensitive nerve tissue and does the same damage to it that battering blows do to the body.

Some people have more resistance than others and recover from "nerves" without showing ill effect. Others are not so lucky and their nerve tissue carries permanent scars that under stress break down and causes some of the distressing symptoms we ascribe to "nerves," one of which is recurring attacks of neuritis (continue tomorrow).

First of all, let me tell you that popovers are a necessity in the production of perfect cakes. Lacking the iron pans, individual pyrex custard cups are next best but extreme care is necessary to prevent cracking when the batter is poured into the very hot glass.

Now about the proper heat: Set the oven for 450 degrees F. and

GILBERT'S TALKIE OPENS IN BROADWAY

"His Glorious Night," John Gilbert's first all-talking picture, is the current attraction in the Fox Broadway theater. The picture opened there yesterday and will continue through Thursday.

Taken from the stage play, "Olympia," the picture is a rollicking comedy with many amusing adventures of a handsome young captain, who carries on a flirtation with a beautiful princess who flirts back with him until she learns that he is of peasant birth and, fearing a scandal, abruptly dismisses him.

He has himself arrested, makes the princess believe that she really will be in a scandal, forces her to rescue him from prison and, in the end, wins the princess. The picture is another of Lionel Barrymore's successes as a director.

The secrets of popovers that stay puffy is cooking them long enough to thoroughly dry them out; the air incorporated by beating, plus the steam generated in baking is what causes them to raise.

A single popover has a calorie value of approximately 70 . . . it's the butter and jam eaten with the popover that makes the total climb!

A fine recipe for making German Potato Salad will be found among the recipes in the current leaflet, A DUTCH LUNCHEON. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope and get a free copy this week.

'FROZEN JUSTICE' WEST COAST FILM

Lenore Ulric, stage star of "Lu-lu Bell," "Mima," "Tiger Rose" and other sensational shows, plays the part of Talu, creature of many moods, in the William Fox all-talking production, "Frozen Justice," which opened a three-day run in the Fox-West Coast theater yesterday.

The first all-talking picture in which Miss Ulric has appeared, "Frozen Justice" is the story of love and hate, passion and greed, and as vital a film as has been shown here recently.

It is the story of a half-caste girl who seeks to better herself and who throws herself away in an attempt to scale the heights to freedom from her hand of Eskimo relatives.

The story is gripping, thrilling and even sensational at times, but all through it Miss Ulric plays the important part in making the film the good entertainment that it is.

Louis Wolheim, Laska Winter, Ulrich Haupt and Robert Frazier have the other important roles in the film. The picture was directed by Allan Dwan.

"Hunting the Hunter," an all-talking Educational picture, a Pathe Audio review and a Fox Movietone newsreel complete the program.

CLOTHES BAGS

The easiest clothes bag to make is the coat hanger type. Use a square of material, sew up both sides and round it across the top to fit a clothes hanger you hang it on. Slit it down about 12 inches from the hanger, on one side.

rector and the supporting cast is an unusually good one, including Katherine Dale Owen, who plays the part of the princess; Hedda Hoppa, Doris Hill, Nance O'Neil, Richard Carle and others.

"Fire Proof," a Lupino Lane all-talking comedy; a U. S. Navy travelogue, "Paths to Palestine," and a Fox Movietone newsreel complete the bill.

How a Family Doctor made Millions of Friends

FIFTEEN years after his graduation, Dr. Caldwell became one of the best-known members of his profession. A single prescription made him famous. And for forty years it has continued to make friends.

As fast as people could tell others about the marvelous way this prescription corrects constipation and relieves other troubles caused by sluggish bowels, demand for it spread until Dr. Caldwell was forced to have it filled in quantities; bottled and distributed through drug stores.

Today, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, as it is called, is the world's most popular laxative. Millions of people would never think of using anything else when they're headachy, bilious, feverish, or weak; when breath is bad, tongue is coated or they are suffering from nausea, from gas, or lack of appetite, etc.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin as you buy it from your drug store is made in accordance with the original formula from only herbs and other pure ingredients. It is pleasant tasting; its action is thorough in the most obstinate cases; gently effective for women and children. Above all, it represents a doctor's choice of what is safe for the bowels.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN

A Doctor's Family Laxative

She used to think she helped him by wearing herself out to save pennies—

"I'm too tired, Jack—I've had an awful time today, the stove smoked and I couldn't burn—dinner's late . . . I'm sorry, but I couldn't help it."

HOW many wives are too tired to go over to the neighbors for a game of bridge . . . the little things that make life worthwhile . . . just because they think they cannot afford to enjoy the comforts that natural gas for cooking and heating can give?

Thousands of women have learned that it doesn't pay to wear themselves out working with an old-fashioned stove, when they can have Rockgas—natural gas, at no more cost than the fuel they now use.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAI COCHRAN — PICTURES BY KNOCK

With all the Tinties sound asleep you couldn't hear a single peep till Coppy started in to snooze. Oh, my, but he snored loud. You'd never think that Coppy could make so much noise. It seemed that he would wake all of the crowd.

But everyone slept on until wee Coppy's voice broke, very shrill. "Hey, there," he shouted. "Goodness me, why can't you let us rest? Such noise I've never heard before. You breathe real deep and then you roar. I've heard a lot of snoring, but you are, by far, the best."

"Oh, gee, I'm sorry," Coppy said. "Go back to sleep and rest your head. I'll stay awake and you will not be troubled any more. Just slide back into slumberland and everything will work out grand. If you should wake again you cannot blame it on my snore."

Then, as tired Coppy closed his eyes, wee Coppy yawned and between sighs, began to look around the barn. It was a great big place. I wish, thought he, that somewhere near, I'd find some water, cool and clear. I know that it would wake me up if I could wash my face.

But ere he had a chance to go, he heard a queer sound down below. He looked out of the feed box and then got a big surprise. A friendly looking horse was there. It raised its head up in the air and looked at frightened Coppy with two big and shining eyes.

And then there came a sudden thrill. The horse's head came higher still. Wee Coppy pulled away real quick and dodged the horse by chance. Wee Coppy was the nearest lad. What happened seemed, at first, quite sad. The horse reached up and grabbed poor Coppy by the pants.

THE TOONERVILLE TROLLEY THAT MEETS ALL THE TRAINS

SALESMAN SAM

BY SMALE

SEN. BORAH AND GRUNDY TANGLE DURING PROBE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The western states, whose senators are re-writing the Republican tariff bill, haven't any chips in the game at all, because they pay only a little more than 2 percent of the income taxes, Joseph R. Grundy, legislative agent and raiser of Republican campaign funds told the senate lobby investigating committee today.

"If it was not for the provision of the Constitution that gives every state two senators, these states would never be heard of," Grundy said. "The income tax figures show the relationship of the states."

"We find these representatives of so little note are obstructing and destroying the great reserves of taxation to such an extent that it is a national tragedy and I think it ought to be pointed out to the country by some one."

The senate adjourned without a session out of respect to the late Senator Burton, Republican, Ohio.

Grundy was recalled at the request of Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho.

Borah sought first to question Grundy about his statement that he came to Washington to make the Republican party carry out its platform adopted at Kansas City.

"Did you do anything to promote the enforcement plank?" Borah asked.

"What particularly did you do?" "I attended the hearings here on farm relief. I don't know how active I have been but I have been interested in it. (The answer steered away from the prohibition question.) I was interested in helping the farmer."

Borah read to him the Republican pledge to equalize the tariff and economic conditions as between agriculture and industry.

"What did you see about here?" "I was interested in seeing that the farmer would get what was coming to him."

EIGHT LOSE LIVES AS STEAMER SINKS

KENOSHA, Wis., Oct. 29.—(UP)—The second big shipwreck on Lake Michigan within a week claimed eight lives today, while coast guardmen fought their way through mountainous waves to save 66 others from the 40-year-old steamer Wisconsin, after it had foundered in a storm 13 miles off the coast.

Among the rescued brought to hospitals here, 20 were suffering from severe injuries.

True to the traditions of the sea, Capt. Hugo McIlwain of the Wisconsin went down with his ship.

Suggests Lakes As Solution For Water Problems

The flood control problem of Orange county was approached today from a new angle in a letter to the board of supervisors from Lillie Obedience Tournet, Buena Park, who suggested the construction of a series of small artificial lakes on the Santa Ana river to replace one large reservoir.

There is plenty of material for such a project, said the letter, pointing out that water could be allowed to drain from one lake to another, thus assuring all portions of the stream a regular flow.

The letter objected forcefully to "high dams," pointing out that Orange county had developed without them.

BEACH MAYOR HONOR GUEST MONDAY NIGHT

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Oct. 29.—The city council of Huntington Beach held an adjourned meeting last night with Mayor Bowen in the chair for the first time in six weeks. He returned late Sunday from a trip to Europe, where he was accompanied by his daughter.

The majority of matters that had been scheduled for action were carried over to the November meeting. Among these were the proposed parking ordinance in the business district along the first two blocks of Main street and the third and fourth blocks of Walnut avenue, main thoroughfares intersecting Main street, and also the matter of creating a mosquito abatement district, as requested by the health board of Orange county. A communication opposing the mosquito abatement district was presented from the chamber of commerce. Mayor Bowen said there was a mosquito nuisance and that he would like to have a conference with the county health department before their request or suggestion was turned down. The city clerk, C. R. Furr, was instructed to convey to the county health board and to Mr. Sutherland the request for a conference.

City Attorney L. W. Blodgett had his report ready as to the legal phases of the purchase of the 3600 feet of beach frontage from the Huntington Beach company, now ready to be closed up, the city being the purchaser. At the suggestion of members of the council the matter went over. The trustees went into conference with the city attorney following the council meeting, to thresh out the various details in regard to taking over the property, so that the matter could be handled at the next regular meeting.

Proceeding the meeting of the city trustees the chamber of commerce tendered Mayor Bowen a welcome home banquet at the Golden Bear cafe. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock and the popular mayor was warmly greeted in short talks by his friends. He responded briefly but appropriately and was evidently fully appreciative of the warmth of the welcome accorded him by a crowd of citizens that filled the banquet hall to capacity. Not only members of the chamber of commerce but the citizens were present, the crowd being thoroughly representative.

FINANCIAL AND MARKET NEWS

CHICAGO BD. OF TRADE

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—(UP)—The wheat market showed a steady tone after the opening session here today and closed the day only slightly lower than yesterday. The weakness of the stocks caused the drop despite the financial support of the government. Prices rallied and fell several times during the day, but a good demand was in evidence most of the session. Foreign markets and eastern houses are reported to be buying in the wheat market.

At the close wheat was 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 lower, corn 1/4 to 3/4, and oats 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Provisions were weak.

EVENING SALUTATION

It is not alone what we do, but also what we do not do, for which we are accountable.
—Moliere.

SENATOR BINGHAM ANSWERED

In our college days the students utilized the library not only for the purpose of reading and studying books and periodicals, but also for the purpose of visiting with their friends. When the noise of the conversation became unbearable, the librarian was wont to use a stereotyped phrase: "Will all those who wish to talk please leave the room?" Naturally, no one would accept the invitation, for who would admit that he had been talking?

Yesterday in the Senate chambers in Washington a question similar in its effect was asked by Senator Caraway of the other Senators. Strange to say there was almost a full attendance at this session. He said, "If there is a regular on this floor who approves of what Senator Bingham did I'll give him opportunity now to stand up and say so." No one rose. Just as the students in college would not admit that they had been disobeying rules, so the Senators would not by their action countenance the admitted wrong-doing of Senator Bingham in employing Charles Eyanson to assist him in his duties on the tariff bill, while Mr. Eyanson was still employed by the Manufacturers' Association of Connecticut.

In fact, we pretty much suspect that the Senators, were disgusted with Senator Bingham, especially since he acted like a little boy who has been caught in some mischief. It was pointed out to the Senate that his defense was the same puerile argument as that used by Fall, Doheny and others. And who is willing to sympathize with a boy who is trying to bluff his way through a situation after he has been caught with the goods on him? The sad part of the whole situation is that Senator Bingham could not offer any real excuse for the position from which he could not extract himself. He could not say that he did not know better, or that he didn't realize he was doing wrong, for he had not had a great many more advantages than most of the senators, and had he not been a professor in one of the most famous universities of the land, with an irreproachable character and reputation?

We rejoice and are overwhelmed glad to know that there are those men in the Senate of the United States who have the courage of their convictions and are willing to point the way through the sham and smoke of such a defense to the heart of the matter. For too frequently politicians try to use a counter attack to hide the real issue. Of course, in this particular issue there was no other alternative for the Senators but denounce him, but there are a few Senators who would do it under any circumstances. In this case at least, Senator Bingham did not get to first base with his attack on the other members of the Senate.

In these days of wide-spread graft and political inefficiency, we are heartened to see so many evidences of justice being done and wrongs being righted. We have but to point to the sentencing of Sinclair and Day for jury shadowing; to the conviction of Albert B. Fall for bribe taking; to the stern denunciation of the "spoils" system by President Hoover; the uncovering of the New Jersey liquor ring; as cases in point.

THEODORE E. BURTON

Theodore E. Burton has answered the last roll call on earth. His loss is a real loss to the entire nation. Mr. Burton was one of the few statesmen of the old school, a loyal and dependable partisan. He was a man of honor and consummate ability. He was a bulwark of strength, because of his personal character, to the party, or even group, with which he was allied. Senator Burton made practically his entire objective public duty and public life. For years he represented the Congressional District in Ohio which gave him every two years a constantly increasing majority. This was due to the fact that they knew Mr. Burton and they knew that he was a real servant who took his work seriously and thoroughly prepared himself for every occasion.

It was as Chairman of the Rivers and Harbors Committee that he rendered his most distinctive service. He made himself so thoroughly conversant with every harbor and river in the United States that on many occasions he evidenced in debate a more complete knowledge and keener discernment in respect to local conditions, than the Congressman from that particular district could possibly show. It reached the point where no one would join the issue when Mr. Burton stated the situation in regard to any river or harbor condition.

Senator Burton was a student of finance and it was the interest of finance which caused him to break away from public life and head a banking institution in New York. This was only for a brief period, however, as he returned to Ohio and was again elected to Congress and then back to the Senate.

Senator Burton was a large contributor to the cause of the development of public sentiment for world peace. Mr. Burton was interested always in the best in citizenship. He stood for the best in all civic affairs. He was student, scholar and statesman, faithful to every duty; faithful to every obligation which was ever placed upon him. There are few men in our public life who are finer in their qualities than was Mr. Burton.

Very appropriately his funeral services will be held in the national capital. He had no personal family, he was never married. His interest was all the people. All the people will pay him homage.

GOOD REPORTS

Santa Ana is to be congratulated on the facts being revealed by reports from our Community Chest headquarters. With the exception of the fact that we have not always in the past raised our full amounts, every report carries items which are most creditable to our city.

The amount required, in the first place, is decidedly below the average for cities of our size. A number of relief agencies which are prominent in other cities are not working here. Others are doing good work on smaller budgets than elsewhere. This indicates efficiency on the part of existing organizations, and it also reflects a wholesome condition in our town which makes some kinds of relief and charity work unnecessary.

Still another fact to which we may point with pride and satisfaction is the quality of volunteer service which is being given by the leaders of the Chest organization. Busy men and women, cumbered with the responsibilities of their own affairs, are giving unstinted hours out of their lives to serve their community through the Chest. And they are doing this with the full realization that their names will go on the dotted line for pledges in generous amounts when the subscriptions are taken up. Thus they are giving twice, first in service and second in money, to support the agencies involved in the Chest.

It will be a proud day for Santa Ana, on November 15, when we can announce the successful completion of the Community Chest fund, with the entire budget covered by the united efforts of a community of people who believe in their city and in her future, and who are willing to back up their belief with their money.

The investigation of the capital may not reveal that Washington is dry, but so long as they keep printing the Congressional Record there will be one very dry article there anyway.

OUR TEAMS

We want to call the attention of the people to the Santa Ana high school football team. On Saturday they met Alhambra and beat them 38-0. Those of us who sat on the sidelines and watched the game a year ago and saw them go down to a sad defeat, found particular pleasure in watching the fine exhibition of football on Saturday.

Our boys have the stick-to-it-iveness required in good sportsmanship. We are for them when they win; we are for them when they lose, and they need us when they lose even more than when they win. We want them to win, but more than winning we want them to sustain the fine reputation for sportsmanship which Santa Ana has among the schools, and they are doing it. And while the High School squad receives most of the notice we would not forget that the Junior College team is giving a fine account of itself.

PANTAGES FOUND GUILTY

Again we are glad to call attention to the fact that millionaires can be punished as other people are. Pantages was found guilty.

We believe that the prosecution, the jury, and the Judge, yes, and even the defense attorneys also, are subjects of congratulation. The trial was a vindication of American justice. It gave to the accused all of the rights to which he was entitled. Justice with an even hand was emphasized by the rulings of the Court, and the jury, after listening to and weighing the evidence, brought in a verdict which evidences their freedom from venal control. We believe the public generally agrees this was in harmony with the evidence. The public can take keen satisfaction in this trial and its outcome.

The Good Old Days

Fresno Morning Republican

Them days has gone forever!
No more can the postmaster while away an idle hour with reading over the postcards that have come in by the morning mail.

No more can his lady friends secure confirmation of their gossip by inspection of the postmarks of letters, with confirmatory evidence from scent, finger marks, return imprints and the like.

Postmaster George W. Turner can not spend his quiet moments with the morning papers before passing them on to subscribers. He has too many other things to do.

But those good old times still obtain in Rumania and other happier parts of the world.

There newspaper publishers are complaining bitterly that the post offices have become public reading rooms. Papers arrive at a town, addressed to citizens who have been most enterprising in subscribing for them. Whereupon the postmaster and all his friends, male and female, get their fill of the world.

The obvious cure seems not to have occurred to the Rumanian government. The administration should see that the postmasters and their clerks have too much to do to permit them to run a public library.

Or perhaps the Rumanian papers have not that influence with the government they are reputed to have in other parts of the world.

Many Foreign Students

Riverside Daily Press

Forty-two countries and twenty-eight nationalities are represented by 314 foreign-born students at the University of California, according to a survey by Theron Clark, registrar.

Russia sends the largest number of European students to Southern California, followed in order by England, Scotland, Sweden, France, Belgium, Norway, Switzerland, Ireland, Lithuania and Finland. Other countries represented are Central America, Peru, Panama, Austria, Asia Minor, South Africa, Mexico, Germany, Colombia, Palestine Syria, Chile, Armenia.

Remote countries represented are Afghanistan, Haiti and Java. Numerous students also come from the territories, Hawaii and Alaska, and from the Canal Zone.

Canada leads all foreign countries with sixty-nine students. Asiatic countries are led by Japan, with fifty-three students, followed by China, the Philippines, Korea, India, Java and Palestine.

Tcht Tch! Such a Dirty Boy!

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

INSULT TO INJURY

I never have envied the Russians, whose life is far from a sequence of hey-days—
A mingling of labor and turmoil and strife
With a dismal infrequency of pay-days.
In the time of the Czar, if they dared to complain,
They languished in dank, dripping coolers,
And their lot was improved not at all with the reign
Of the thick whiskered Soviet rulers.

But evils can never be wholly unmixed,
And though theirs is a turbulent nation
And badly indeed as the moujiks are fixed
I believed they had one compensation.
"The speech of the average Russian," said I,
"A sneeze or a cough or a squeak is,
And therefore the managers never will try
To torture their ears with the speakies."

"Their lot may be tough, but it might be far worse,
For they can't be the prey to inventors
Who've discovered a way to make pictures converse
In the deafening accents of Stentors.
Perhaps when on street or on steppe they may stray
Their surroundings will echo with violence;
But at least when they go to a cinema play
They can count on the blessings of silence."

Now I learn I was wrong, for the Muscovite tongue
Which came down, unrefined through the ages
With all of its horrors, is spoken and sung
Upon all Russian's poor play stages.
One would think the poor Russ had endured quite enough,
But still more he is destined to suffer,
And a life that has always been vastly too rough
Must daily grow rougher and rougher.

TOO ROUGH

Whales are now being killed by electricity. We should think that life imprisonment would be nearly as salutary and far more humane.

SLOW DEMAND

Most manufacturers report improved business, over this time last year, excepting of course the brown derby manufacturers.

FOR MINORITY CONSUMPTION

California is exporting many trainloads of grapes to the Atlantic coast, a few of which are eaten.

Capital Often Works
For NothingBy WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

"Property rights," says one of our critics, "give property owners a prior claim on production. The risks of industry and the losses are borne in the first instance by labor."

As far as profits and dividends are concerned, this is far from the truth. Wages not only have a prior claim, but are actually paid, as a rule, before it is possible to tell whether there will be any profits.

At the end even of a prosperous year, more than 100,000 corporations, having paid wages throughout the year, find that there is nothing left for dividends.

From 1913 to 1927 the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad carried millions of people, and the necessities of life to millions more. During these thirteen years, the road paid wages regularly, with little real choice as to what the wages should be. Yet throughout this long period the owners of the road received not a single dollar in dividends.

As a matter of fact, the losses which resulted from business depressions fall more heavily on the stockholders and the farmer than on the wage-earner.

Capital often works without income.

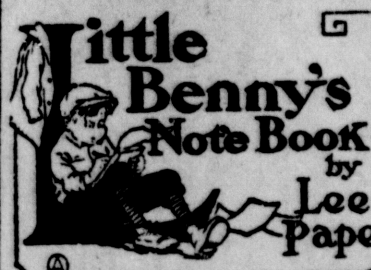

Labor rarely works without wages.

The job and the income of the laborer should be more secure. There is no question about that. But it will not help matters to overlook the insecurity of capital income.

Capital too, suffers from involuntary unemployment.

What we should and can attain is greater security of the incomes of labor and capital alike.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

AN ADVENTURE AMONG EPIGRAMS

I sat across the aisle of the Pullman from one of my colleagues, who is a distinguished scientist and one of the hardest working men I know.

I was very tired from a long series of budget-making sessions and staff conferences.

Neither he nor I was in the mood for sober conversation or serious reading, as the volumes in our hands indicated.

The book in his hand and the book in mine illustrated two tastes in relaxation.

He was reading a cheaply written detective story.

I was reading a little volume called "So Say the Wise," a recently compiled book of brief sentences culled from the books and periodicals and newspapers of the time.

Both of us found relaxation in the books we were reading.

To me, it is not so much difficult work as sustained work or thought that tires; and so I find as much relaxation in a book of ideas briefly put, so that no sustained attention is required, as I find in a detective or mystery story.

So I always drop a book of brevities into my bag when I set out on a journey after busy days.

Sometimes it may be a volume of Havelock Ellis' "Affirmation," sometimes a volume of a "Pio Baroja," or a current volume like "So Say the Wise."

Here are a few things that caught my eye on yesterday's five-hour train ride:

"Every worthy movement," says Dean Inge, "has to pass through three stages. First, people say it is ridiculous; second, that it is contrary to religion; and third, everybody knew it before."

"All the finest things we have today were discovered, fashioned, or conceived by those who kept constantly in sight the motto, 'I may be wrong,'" observes Heywood Brown.

"Contentment," says Eugene O'Neill, "is a warm sty for eaters and sleepers."

"Death-bed promises," suggests Edna Ferber, "should be as lightly broken as they are seriously made. The dead have no right to lay their clammy fingers upon the living."

Here are volumes of thought packed into vivacious sentences, and I find it restful to play with them on a journey.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

HALLOWE'EN

Do you believe in saints? Do you believe that what the good folks do lives after them? Do you believe that there is within you, somewhere, somehow, a spirit that lives on in some form or other, a spirit that has the power of eternal life which makes itself felt on this earth from time to time? I do. I cannot tell you exactly how I came to believe it.

Perhaps it was because I lived so close to so many mothers of so many children. There is so much spirit of good in mothers and children. Maybe mothers ought not to be left out; I had a father, I still have him though he left this earth some years ago, whose spirit I well know lives after him.

Of course you know that Halloween is the evening before All Saints' day. On that evening all sorts of things are likely to happen, according to the legend. You can call up any spirit you wish upon that evening and feel its presence near. And why not?

If you slip off to a quiet corner in church or home or park or grove, if you clear your spirit of all that is bearing down upon it and sweep it clean, leaving it empty and waiting, will not the spirit you invoke enter in and commence with you? You have but to invite it.

Sad or glad you may be this Halloween. I hope it is gladness that awaits you. If for a moment your spirit calls to a shadow of darkness, why let us would be those who have left us and gloom. There are young folk still with us and why not call up the spirit of gladness for them? It is sacred.

Parties of young people are sacred to this night. The old legends of sweethearts and witches and prophecy are quaint and interesting and under them is the fine old faith in goodness and its survival through our time and eternity that gives them a quality above the actual. I would not infer that a Halloween party resembled a church service.

Only that a certain spiritual quality underlies that party, witches and brooms and blackened plates and apple duckings and ring findings, and all the rest of the customs.

That may be because I believe in saints. I may be because I believe that the spirit of goodness and love never dies from this earth. I leave you to your own choice in the matter, but I take the saints to my party.

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

WORLD'S FAIR CLOSED

The World's Columbian Exposition, an international fair held in Chicago to celebrate the 400th anniversary of the landing of Columbus, closed on October 30, 1933.

The total attendance was 27,639,041 and there were 250,000 exhibits of arts, industries, manufactures, and the products of the soil, mines and sea. Receipts amounted to $23,290,065 and disbursements were $31,117,353.

The exposition was authorized by Congress in 1890 and a total fund of about $20,000,000 was available for use before the fair opened. The site covered an area of 666 acres in Jackson park in the southeastern part of Chicago.

The principal buildings were constructed of a composition called staff, consisting of a mixture of plaster of Paris with a little cement, glycerin and dextrin in water, which at a short distance gave the appearance of marble. The exposition subsequently became known as the White City.

During the exposition, a series of international congresses, grouped under 20 departments and 224 general divisions, were held.
